

CABINET ELECTED

Litzner To Be SB Prexy

By Linda Mugridge

Norman Litzner, Cheboygan, Mich., will be Student Body president for the 1959-60 school year.

Students elected Roger Lageschulte, Waverly, vice president and Marilyn Nissen, Corwith, secretary.

Approximately seven hundred Wartburgers voted at Wednesday's election, according to Larry Nelson, elections chairman.

Inauguration Set

Inauguration of new officers will be held at the May 14 Student Body meeting, according to present SB prexy, Jim Schwarz. Any Student Senate meetings held after that date will be conducted by the newly installed officers.

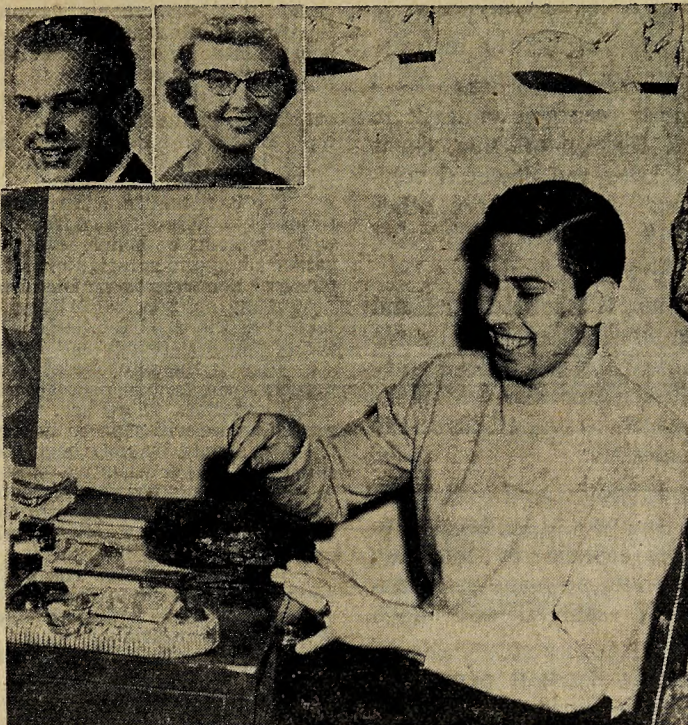

Litzner, who is presently junior class president, has been a class officer for the past three years. He also was chairman of last year's Campus Carnival.

Litzner Speaks

"I know what my reaction was to the election, but it's hard to put into words," said Litzner. "It's kind of like the feeling you get after semester exams."

Lageschulte, president of Young Republicans Club and Ushers Club, was chairman of this year's prom. Miss Nissen is a member of Choir, Band and Music Educators National Conference.

"I am honored to have the position of vice president, and

THE VICTOR and spoils — chocolate cake.

I'll consider it a great pleasure to work with Norm," said Lageschulte.

Elections Coming

In other election news, class presidents, student senators and the 1959 Homecoming chairman will be elected within the next two weeks, according to Nelson.

Class presidents will be elected in Luther Hall voting booths Monday. During the following Monday, May 11, the voting booths will again see use as senators are elected. Deadline for senate nominees is 8 p.m. Friday, according to Nelson.

Nominations for Homecoming chairman will close at 7 p.m. Wednesday. The election will take place during Thursday's convocation.

Seniors Visit Wed.; Parents Day Friday

Nearly three-hundred high school seniors will invade Wartburg's campus Wednesday, May 6, for a full day of sightseeing and activities.

Parent's Day is slated for Friday, May 8, with a day of activities on tap.

Wednesday Schedule Set

Wednesday's activities will include registration, tours, classes (for both visitors and Wartburgers), exhibits and convo in the morning.

Classes missed because of this 11 o'clock convocation are to be made up at Tuesday's regular convo time.

Band concert, track meet (Wartburg vs Winona), baseball (Wartburg vs Buena Vista) are slated for the afternoon, while that evening's regular chapel will be held at 6:45 in Knights Gymnasium.

Plays Are The Thing

Following chapel three one-act plays will be presented by the Wartburg Players in the Little Theater. These plays, winners of the recent, Wartburg sponsored, All Iowa One-Act Playwriting Contest are "The Queen's Messenger" by Norman Handelsman, first prize winner; "The Casket Maker" by Richard Stockton, second prize winner; and third prize winner, "George Spelvin" by Rik Pierce.

Liemohn Declines Honorary Degree

Dr. Edwin Liemohn, director of the Wartburg Choir, has been offered the honorary degree of Doctor of Music by the faculty and Board of Regents of Capital University, ALC school at Columbus, Ohio.

The degree was to be presented today at the dedication of a new music building on the Capital campus, where he was to deliver the main address.

Dr. Liemohn, however, has found it necessary to decline the honor because of a choir tour to Minnesota this weekend. He was unable to attend the dedication ceremonies or present the address.

Industrialist Talks

Robert Le Tourneau will speak tonight in Knights Gymnasium starting at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

The noted industrialist is often referred to as "God's businessman."

A varied and busy schedule is being planned for Parents Day by the Student Senate, according to chairman Dennis Dickman, senior.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. with class visitations to run until 1 p.m. Special convocation at 10 a.m. will feature the Wartburg Band, Quartet, Trio, with presentation by four

CALLING ALL GUIDES

Can you find your way from Knights Gymnasium to Luther Hall?

If so, you probably qualify as a guide for campus visitors on Senior Day Wednesday or Parents Day Friday. Tours will be conducted during the morning of both days, according to senior Dennis Dickman. Guides may be excused from classes.

Those interested in being guides on Parents Day should contact freshman Al Putz, according to Dickman. Prospective Senior Day guides should contact Dickman.

members of last semester's radio monitoring class, seniors Julius Roehl, Ron Pfohl, John Meyer and Dick Neitzke to round out the hour.

The 10 a.m. class missed Friday will be made up Thursday at regular convo time.

After lunch at the college cafeteria, the Knight baseball squad will host Loras on the local diamond. Following the game a coffee hour will be held in the Centennial Hall Lounge for all parents, students and faculty members.

Heading the evening schedule will be a special chapel service, after which the three winning one-act plays of Wartburg's All College One-Act Play Writing Contest will be presented in the Little Theater.

Wartburg Band Plans Full Schedule Of Activities For Month Of May

A full slate of performances is scheduled for the Wartburg Band during the remaining weeks of school.

Next Wednesday the band members will perform for Senior Day. Also on Friday they will play several numbers in convocation for Parents' Day. These numbers will consist of selections from "South Pacific" and the musical play "Great Day" by Vincent Youmans.

The Band Quartet, whose members are Fred Langrock, Milburn Goetz, Eddie Skay, and Keith Lunde, will also sing for Parents' Day.

On May 22 the band will play for an awards ceremony. Performances are also planned for the library dedication on May 28 and for commencement on the following day.

Choir Director Needs Prospective Members

Auditions for membership in Wartburg Choir are being arranged for next week, according to choir director Dr. Edwin Liemohn.

New members will replace those who will be seniors next year and prepare for the fall tour in 1960.

"Because of the many upper-classmen, particularly in the ladies' sections at present, about half of the personnel will have to be replaced," Dr. Liemohn stated. "I hope to make many of these replacements from students now on the campus — the remainder will be entering students."

"Students should see me for appointments," he added.

Fifteen Nominated For Class Leaders; Voting Scheduled For Monday

Fifteen potential class presidents were nominated by 8 p.m. last night, according to Larry Nelson, elections chairman. Balloting will be held in Luther Hall voting booths Monday.

Candidates for the presidency of next year's senior class are Don Bathgate, Joel Diemer, Gary Hummel and Larry Stumme.

Junior class nominees are Bruce Bergquist, Robert Boettcher, Larry Collmann and Dave Kaiser.

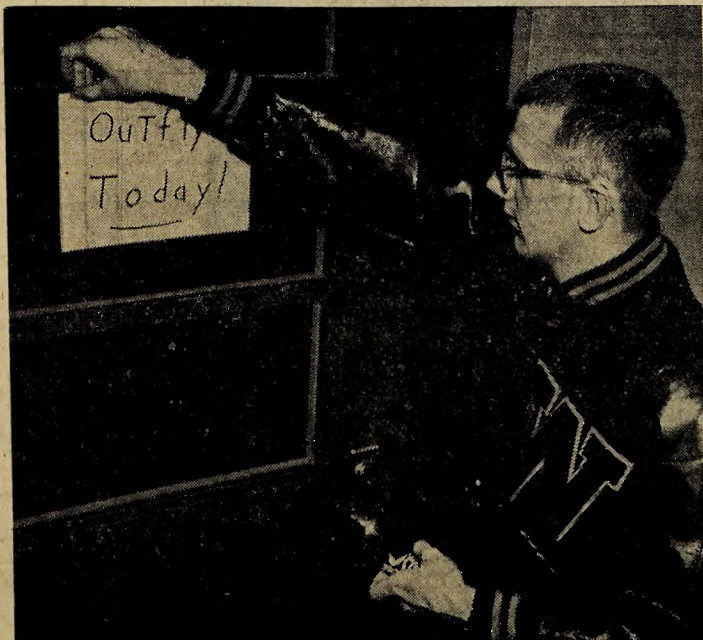

Sophomore candidates include Robert Albers, Arthur Baker, David Braunschweig, Don Dietzler, Pearce Konold, Allan Snook and Neil Stuhmer.

USHERS DINE OUT

Wartburg Ushers Club held its annual banquet last night at the Club Iowa, Charles City. The dinner was sponsored by the Artist Series Committee.

Ushers Club members who had earned a total of eight points by ushering at the four Artist Series this year were invited to attend, according to senior Lois Huth, secretary of the organization.

What If No Campus Cars?

Talk about your hustle and bustle — have you tried to study by an open window lately?

We hear all about student apathy and lethargic activities on campus, but no one seems to notice the speed at which rubber is peeled from tires and gas fumes fill the air, even on a fine spring day.

A few chuckles and yawns were audible at convocations several weeks back as the Dean of Students informed a few delinquent parkers of the possibility that driver's privileges could be taken away from all students because of offenders.

Well, that sounds like a welcome relief to many things! While getting rid of offenders, why not reconsider and get rid of the fenders, wheels, super sound and all? What a sweet thought, a campus without cars, motorcycles, motor scooters and the like.

What would it be like?

One could visualize quiet roads and walks, well-trodden paths of human progress . . .

Then the bicycles would come, thin tires, balloon tires, English makes, assorted brands, tandems, unicycles, roller skates and pogo sticks.

Then the bicycles would begin to move faster, cyclists would invade the sidewalks, pedestrians would tremble at the sight of racers coming four and five abreast helter-skelter.

Soon studies would be disturbed by the constant putting of cardboard rubbing on cycle wheels . . . there would be dual noises of cardboard . . . some sleek, upholstered seats would be noticeable . . . BUT, MAYBE NOT!

Maybe there would be closer harmony on the campus, more academic isolation, not isolation from the world, but a restraining force within the college plant.

One of the more reputable colleges in the United States, Oberlin of Ohio, curbs the use of automobiles and powered vehicles on its campus, and there are other colleges which at least restrict this privilege to upperclassmen.

But the clean air, the settled dust and the lack of weekend wandering — couple those with the money and space devoted to parking lots, office regulations and plans for more parking lots — and think of the change and the saving.

The old art of walking would come back into vogue, more time would be devoted to being out-of-doors, instead of huddling into cars. There would be many safe-driving cyclists, roller skaters and pogo stickers.

But the engine is fixed; it penetrates our minds with its necessity. There are so many reasons why we must have a car. Besides, we can afford it — and don't forget, we've got to have a way to get home on weekends — can't stand it here. Of course, that's not the reason, really. Is it?

Why Be Here?

An Open Letter To A College Christian:
Another academic year is drawing to a close, and in the midst of a tight May schedule, you probably pause to wonder once in a while, just whether or not you made the right decision by coming to an institution that aspires to be Christian in its formulation.

Many times you may ask yourself, "What difference does it make, whether I attend this college or some university where there are also religious groups of my own choosing?"

It may have made a lot of difference, but probably not for the reason that is commonly accepted. It is not absurd to say that a Christian in attendance at a university or secular school can easily become more isolated and sheltered than one who attends a Christian liberal arts college.

Why is this true? It is true because, beneath any superficial exterior of righteousness, most Christians on a Christian campus, have to deal mightily with the problem of religion each day. Sure, it can be ignored, but how long can one ignore something that is all around him?

The Christian in a Christian atmosphere, unless he is content to merely swallow the consensus of the herd, is forced to wrestle with problems of belief, something he might have easily become rather smug and self-righteous about when isolated within a small circle of believers on an island in a secular sea.

In my opinion, a Christian college should bring one face to face with the need for personal strength and personal faith in a sea of personal beliefs and ideals.

What is the pitch here? The pitch is simply that we are not porcelain saints, banded together for the preservation of our lustrous exteriors. If we are, we should hope, more so, we should pray, that we will soon be in for a good shattering.

We should by now begin to realize that we did not flee to some ivory tower when we chose to attend a college which aspires to be Christian. We should realize that here we have the opportunity, at last, to wrestle with the real essentials of our faith and to share the result chiefly by our deeds, not merely by mouthing creeds and reciting platitudes.

What is the pitch? The pitch is be glad, be glad if you find yourself not afraid to criticize that which is around you and in you, not afraid to realize that among fellow Christians the weaknesses and shortcomings of the world are also present. Be glad if you are not afraid of this, and if you can see that it should be that way.

Truth is around us, but so is falsehood; truth is preached as truth and offered to us, but so does falsehood come in this same way. Be glad that the opportunity is being offered to you to decide which is which for yourself.

As this year draws to a close, and you quite naturally ask the question, "Why am I here?" take the time to look beneath a few exteriors and maybe you'll begin to realize that you are here to get, and maybe are getting, a higher education.

Say, hey, don't look now, but it happens to be May. This means only 20 more class days until this school year draws to a close. They said it couldn't be done, but watch it happen — a whole semester's work crammed into 20 days. Good luck, gang.

Spring is surely here to stay and with it baseball and courtship. Baseball and courtship are not so remote as one might think. You have to get to first base in both before you can score. Here's a tip: try the squeeze play.

Wartburg students elected a Student Body prexy from a field of two Chi Rho's and two Republicans. Everyone was pleased with a well-run race except Jerry Ford when he says, "What chance has a poor Democrat got?"

"Congrats" go out to the track team for its fine efforts at Drake. That's right, gang, we do have a track team this year. You just haven't had a chance to see them yet. First home meet — Wednesday.

"Pass the mop and soap, please," is the word of the week. Senior Day on Wednesday and Parents Day on Friday all add up to spring house cleaning. I can hear it all now — "You mean you live like this all year, son?"

For those of you who can't remember what a high school senior girl is, here is the popular definition: The kind you would take home to Mom, if you could trust Dad.

COLLEGE POLL

Atomic Testing Divides Opinion

Minneapolis—ACP) — Testing of atomic weapons was a major campaign issue in the 1956 presidential elections, and it continues to come to national attention from time to time.

National opinion on the subject of radioactivity and fallout danger is divided. Because of conflicting views, it becomes increasingly difficult to know exactly what to think.

One out of two college students questioned on this topic by Associated Collegiate Press, however, feels that atomic testing should definitely be continued. Forty per cent of the total number interviewed feel testing should be stopped, and ten per cent are undecided.

To obtain this information, Associated Collegiate Press incorporated the following question in a recent National Poll of Student Opinion survey:

"Do you think the testing of atomic weapons should be continued, or do you think it should be stopped?"

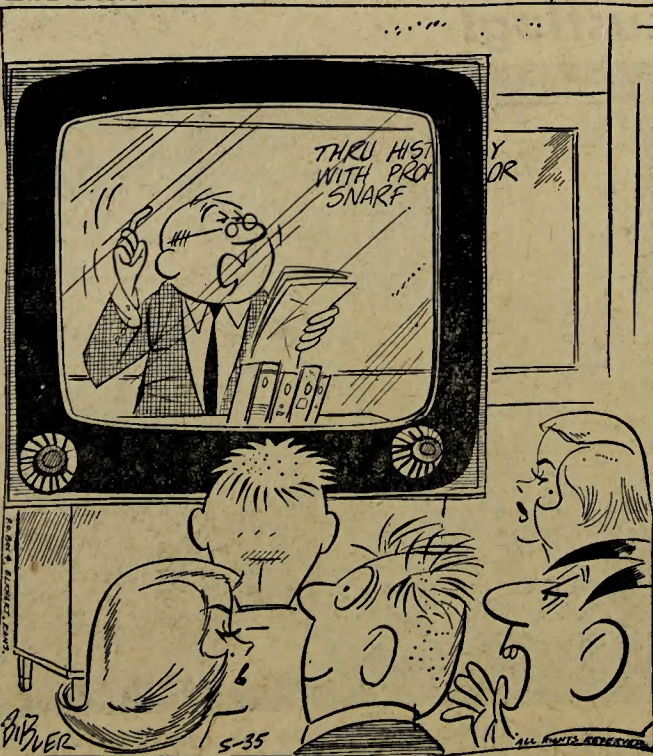

Fifty-seven per cent of the college men interviewed felt testing should continue. Thirty-eight per cent of them thought it should be stopped, and five per cent were undecided.

This is in contrast to answers given by coeds to the question.

They were evenly split on the issue: Less than half—43 per cent—of the college women questioned felt testing should continue, and another 43 per cent felt it should be stopped. Fourteen per cent of them — proportionately, a much greater number than men—were undecided. A complete tabulation of responses to the question is as follows:

	Men	Women	Total
Should be continued	57%	43%	50%
Should be stopped	38%	43%	40%
Don't know, undecided	5%	14%	10%

Borcherding Goes For Fourth Win

Wartburg's baseball squad will be out to raise its record to 7-3, entertaining Iowa Wesleyan here today at 1:30.

Coach Earnest Oppermann is planning to start freshman Jim Borcherding in the first game with Marv Ott probably going in the second game. Borcherding is presently carrying a 3-1 record.

Host BV Tuesday

Tuesday the Knights will host Buena Vista at 2 p.m. as part of the program for Senior Day. On Friday they will entertain Loras as part of the Parents Day festivities.

The Knights pinned a 10-9 decision on Upper Iowa Tuesday as they rallied in the ninth inning for two important runs. Dar Oehlerich was the hero of the game with a blast over the center fielder's head to score Dar Fritz from third base with the winning run.

Siefkes Brings Relief

Dave Siefkes, sophomore right hander from Charles City, gave the Knights a splendid relief job as he limited the Peacocks to two hits after taking over mound duties in the fifth to get credit for the win.

Denny Wessels and Marv Ott led Wartburg's hitting in the slugfest. Wessels collected a single, a double and a triple in five times at the plate while Ott connected for a homerun and a double in four official at bats.

SOME unidentified sliding takes place in Tuesday's 10-9 win over Upper Iowa.

Golfers Tee At Home

Coach Norm Johansen's golfers will be shooting for their second win of the season as they take on Buena Vista at the Waverly Golf Course this afternoon.

Jerry Nora, freshman from Waterloo, will be leading the Knights in the number one position. Bob Bracklein will be in the number two position and Bob Mueller in the third spot.

Going for Wartburg in the fourth and fifth lineup spots will be either Gary Hummel, Vic Baderschneider, Dick Bergman, Jim Rodewald or Mel Schlichting.

Wednesday the golfers dropped their second meet of the season to Iowa State Teachers College on the Waverly course by a 12½ to 2½ margin.

Track Squad Competing At Viking Olymics

Wartburg's cindermen are at Rock Island, Ill., today where they are participating in the Viking Olympics, sponsored by Augustana College.

Coach Bob Campbell's hopes of coming home with the championship took a severe blow when he learned that sprinter Wayne Dreier could not make the trip. Dreier has been a standout this year in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Wallin Weakened

Discus thrower Chuck Wallin pulled a muscle in his back at Thursday practice and will be performing under a slight handicap, according to Campbell.

The squad of 20 men left yesterday at 1 p.m. and spent the evening at the Hotel Davenport in Davenport.

Luther Defends Crown

Luther College captured the championship in last year's Olympics with Wartburg finishing third. Luther is a favorite this year along with St. Olaf.

Participating teams are Augustana, Luther, Carthage, Valparaiso, Gustavus Adolphus, St. Olaf, Augsburg and Wartburg.

Tuesday the cindermen will have their first home meet as they entertain Winona State Teachers College of Winona, Minn.

In a Tuesday contest with Loras, the Knights rolled up an 80½-50½ victory as they swept two events.

The Knights copped the first three places in both the broad jump and the discus and sprinters Eddie Skay and Wayne Dreier brought home firsts and seconds respectively in the 100 and 220 dashes.

John Mullholland of Loras set a new school record in the two mile as he crossed the finish line in 9 minutes and 43.9 seconds.

It's here again — baseball.

This summer thousands upon thousands of American people will flood baseball parks across the country. Inside the park there is tradition — formed over years of participation.

We have drawn up a list of commandments for Wartburgers to follow while at the ballpark this summer.

Here goes:

I Thou shalt accept the decision of the umpire even though he has left his bifocals at home on the dresser, and at all times keep thy gun in thine holster.

II Thou shalt refrain from booing, insulting, denouncing, ridiculing, deriding, scoffing, mocking, scorning, humiliating, distracting, sneering, hooting, slighting, spurning, disgracing, jeering or pooh-poohing the opposing team other than in the normal course of the game.

III Thou shalt keep thy tongue in thine cheek (and a complete record) for the sojourner who sits to the inside of you and drags his No. twelves across your feet, making at least six trips during the game to no one knows' where.

IV Thou shalt not bestow a black eye upon the casanova who has made his annual excursion to the ballpark and attempts to impress his date with fictitious knowledge that was outdated when Connie Mack first donned a uniform.

V Thou shalt reserve two bits for that sixth-inning hot dog, which by the time it gets to you has been handled by no less than 30 pairs of hands and closely resembles an imposter's scheme to put Oscar Mayer out of business.

VI Thou shalt attempt to consider the reasons why a batter steps out of the box and be able to present a logical interpretation to your neighbor, even though the game is three hours and 46 minutes old.

VII Thou shalt at all times go along with the judgment of thy team's manager to be safe, for if you had prefigured the play as he did and it worked, you can triumphantly point this out to your neighbor. If the play did not work, you can proudly point out that he (the manager) is a man with great responsibilities.

VIII Thou shalt yell words of encouragement to the bonus rookie who boots a pop fly for his third error of the game, for he needs to know that "Somebody Up There Likes Me."

IX Thou shalt not cast paper airplanes, hot dog wraps, paper cups and Copenhagen tins onto the field of play, for the Sputnik age is supplying sufficient fallout.

X Thou shalt, above all, keep thine eyes on the field of play even, when Clancey ushers out an over-indulging individual and the guy in the upper deck spills a bottle of Milwaukee's finest product down your back, so that you can take home with you fond memories of — America's greatest form of relaxation.

Senators Discuss Worship—

At their pre-election meeting Monday night, senators focused attention on campus worship, a proposed student government assessment, committee appointment and the Academic Life Committee report.

According to Howard Schroeder, Religious Activities Committee chairman, final work is progressing on the two campus worship services slated for May 10 and 17. The Rev. Herman Diers, new college chaplain, will preach both Sundays.

Pastor Diers, the Rev. Walde-mar Gies of the Christianity Department, Dr. William Schmidt of Waverly and seniors Jim Schwarz, Norm Braatz and Herbert Hafermann met Wednesday to consider the constitution for the campus church.

Senators also discussed a proposed student government assessment of 25 cents per student per year, effective 1960-61. Student government presently has no set income but is allocated funds from the Student Activity fee. According to Student Body Pres. Schwarz, the Senate hopes to present a recommendation concerning the proposal at the Student Body meeting May 14.

"Such an assessment would give student government a definite sum and definite proportion," said Hafermann.

Senate approved appointment of junior Wanda Karsten to the 1959-60 faculty-student convocations committee. Howard Schroeder was named as alternate.

Work of the Academic Life Committee was sketched by its chairman, Dave Grube. The possibility of chartering a chapter of Alpha Ki, national honorary scholastic society, on campus is being investigated by the committee.

Trumpet Receives Rating Of First Class By Associated Collegiate Press For 1st Sem.

First Semester issues of the Trumpet were rated First Class by the Associated Collegiate Press, Minneapolis, Minn.

The total points received by the Trumpet, 3,440, were close but not quite the 3,500 minimum necessary to receive the All American top rating awarded by ACP for its class. Wartburg is classified among weeklies published by colleges of 751-1,250 enrollment.

Two superior (top) ratings were awarded by judge Duane Andrews for sports coverage and editorials.

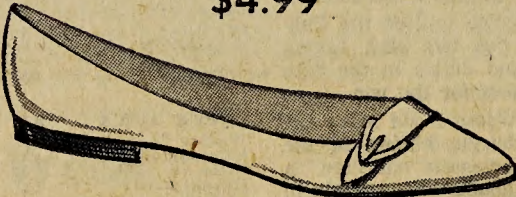

Issues are rated for both semesters of the school year, each semester being rated separately by the critical service.
